NAME: _____

PURPOSE

The purpose of THE BUSINESS & YOU seminar is to create an environment that allows people the opportunity to experience and examine their beliefs about money, business, and their personal relationships to others in their work environments and on the planet.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The roots of Business & You date back over fifteen years now. While I have continued to improve the course over time, the original source material was from a seminar called "Money and You" designed by Marshall Thurber. Marshall has been a consistent inspiration to me over the years. Thank you, Marshall.

LEVELS OF LEARNING

MASTERY	Rewrites history in a field of work. Operates on embodied learning and intuition. A spontaneous innovator.
PROFICIENT	Exceeds standards with autonomy. Intuition plays key role. Fundamental to wealth accumulation.
COMPETENT	Can perform to minimum standards. Produces satisfaction with autonomy.
ADVANCED BEGINNER	Gains some autonomy with practice but still needs coaching.
NOVICE	The beginner, overloaded with rules and new procedures - lacks autonomy.
BLIND	Blind to the phenomenon of learning levels.

MISTAKES

In 1943, Wernher von Braun was working on a rocket that the Germans hoped would destroy London and end the war. Producing this new rocket required new metals, new fuels, new guidance systems, new everything. Von Braun's superiors were impatient to move the project to completion. They were angered by the many changes he had sent to the factories responsible for manufacturing the rocket. "You are supposed to be the ultimate brain in this operation...do you know offhand how many last-minute changes you've made in your rocket plans...since you started two years ago?" They waved a piece of paper before Von Braun. "Make a guess, Professor. How many changes have you sent to the factories?" And there the ridiculous figure was: 65,121. It was accurate. Von Braun acknowledged his 65,121 mistakes. He then estimated he would make 5,000 more before the rocket was ready. "It takes sixty-five thousand errors before you're qualified to make a rocket," he said. "Russia has made maybe thirty thousand of them by now. America hasn't made any."

In the second half of World War II, Germany, alone, pounded her enemies with ballistic missiles; no other country had them. And when the war was over, Wernher Von Braun became the "ultimate brain" in America's space program. Only a few years--and many mistakes--later, America put a man on the moon.

MOODS

People have moods.

Moods have people.

FOUR BASIC MOODS

What is your mood?

Men are born soft and supple;
dead, they are stiff and hard.
Plants are both tender and pliant;
dead, they are brittle and dry.

Thus whoever is stiff and inflexible is a disciple of death.
Whoever is soft and yielding is a disciple of life.

The hard and stiff will be broken.
The soft and supple will prevail.

Lao-Tzu

FOUR BASIC MOODS

	PAST	FUTURE
OPPOSE	RESENTMENT	RESIGNATION
ACCEPT	PEACE	AMBITION

RESENTMENT: Someone or something harmed me in the past. I was the victim and this was not fair. I suffered some loss and this is not okay with me.

RESIGNATION: There is no future here. Today and tomorrow will be just like yesterday; same-o, same-o.

PEACE: I accept what has happened, and I am at peace.

AMBITION: I see future opportunities and possibilities in the actions I take.

Fernando Flores & Rafael Echeverria

9. Innovation is an essential part of your job.

PRODUCING VALUE:

10. Add value (more for less) for the customer, for TNC and for yourself.

EMOTIONAL COMPETENCE:

11. Be willing to win and allow others to win (abundance).
12. Focus on what works, declare breakdowns when it doesn't work.

Take responsibility for your own experience at TNC.

Archistruction™

Before there were architects and before there were contractors, there were people who worked together sharing ideas in designing and building structures that worked. Next came the architects who were called Master Builders, designing and constructing buildings of historical renown. Then the Industrial Revolution came and gave us the rules of specialization. This brought us advantages, but it also carried the "divide and conquer" attitude. Soon the building industry split into functional silos. This was the genesis of the "throw it over the wall" mind set that plagues our industry today.

Throw it over the wall. An idea that has outlived its usefulness.

No new ideas spring forth from a void. Rather, new ideas emerge from a set of conditions in which old ideas no longer seem to work. Many years ago The Neenan Company lost ten times its net worth on one DesignBuild project. Instead of giving up, we sat down and used our experiences to redesign our core processes. The traditional delivery system, with all of its weaknesses, eventually became the source of inspiration for the next advance, and we call it Archistruction™. Archistruction™ is a new style; it is a way of being together that takes most functions inhouse to achieve integration. And while we call it new, it has historical roots that open new possibilities.

The purpose of Archistruction™ is to unify all disciplines to represent the best interest of the owner. Some of the methods used include:

- ♦ Bringing architects, development expertise, financing and builders together under the same roof.
- ♦ Sharing a common objective based upon the clients needs and resources.
- ♦ Open communications and sharing ideas between all team members (from the field to the office and vice versa).
- ♦ Utilizing value engineering to maximize the longterm value for the client.
- ♦ Partnerships with suppliers and subcontractors.
- ♦ Continuous improvement/quality focus.
- ♦ Conflict resolution without litigation.
- ♦ Following a core process that allows us to blend multiple disciplines into a cohesive whole.
- ♦ Performing our work in the context of teamwork and support, open cooperation and trust.

The intended outcome of the Archistruction process is to satisfy the owner while providing a single source of responsibility for the entire project with an enforceable price. One of our clients recently called it "one stop shopping."

IT'S ABOUT TIME

There's a full moon over India and Ghandi lives again
Who's to say you have to lose for someone else to win
In the eyes of all the people the look is much the same
For the first is just the last one when you play a deadly game.

It's about time we realize it, we're all in this together
It's about time we find out it's all of us or none
It's about time we recognize it these changes in the weather
It's about time, it's about changes and it's about time.

There's a light in the Vatican window for all the world to see
And a voice cries in the wilderness and sometimes he speaks for me
I suppose I love him most of all when he kneels to kiss the land
With his lips upon our mother's breast he makes his strongest stand.

It's about time we start to see it the earth is our only home
It's about time we start to face it we can't make it here all alone
It's about time we start to listen to the voices in the wind
It's about time and it's about changes and it's about time.

There's a man who is my brother, I just don't know his name
But I know his home and family because I know we feel the same
And it hurts me when he's hungry and when his children cry
I too am a father and a little one is mine.

It's about time we begin it to turn the world around
It's about time we start to make it the dream we've always known
It's about time we start to live it the family of man
It's about time, it's about changes and it's about time
It's about peace and it's about plenty and it's about time
It's about you and me together and it's about time.

You don't really have a choice; if you "stuff" your LHC, it will leak or blow up espousing toxic wastes.

BUCKY SPEAKS ON INTEGRITY

I want you to think about this as individuals. An individual will say to me, "What can I do? What can I do? I'm just a little tiny guy."

And, I say, what you can do -- I'm repeating something I said to you earlier that we are really in the final examination. I did get last night to you that we are a function in the universe. -- We're here for local universe information gathering, local problems solving in support of the integrity of an eternally regenerative universe.

But integrity is the essence. In an invisible world there's no visible aesthetics. In an invisible world the only aesthetic is integrity.

It's our great computer world we're going into. So, I simply say, I am really confronting you with the way I've lived through all that because I was a comprehensivist, I've kept the records. That's the only reason I'm able to say all these things to you I am up to. I am giving you a very faithful record of what's going on economically.

So I simply say, what you can do personally is commit yourself to what is the truth. That's all. You have to remember that we didn't invent design the universe, and we're not running the universe.

I'm absolutely willing to give credit to the - I like what the Indians say - "The Great Spirit." The word "God" tends to infer a human being's form, so I say "The Great Spirit" so you realize that I don't mean anthropomorphic when I say "God."

But, if you operate with integrity, God wants to know right now whether human beings have the courage to go along with their own minds, or do you have to go along with the crowd? Do you have to go evenly with the game, or are you going to dare? If we really dare to go with our minds, we'll stay here. We'll go into an entirely new era in humanity.

It will not be a matter of earning a living. You'll be doing what you see needs to be done because you'll feel you'll want to do it. You'll want to qualify to be able to serve one another. There will be nothing; you will have no question at all about earning a living.

At any rate personally -- then we've got two minutes to this session -- it comes back to each one of you, as the numbers multiply of individuals who are willing to commit themselves to integrity whatever the truth may be, and really commit themselves to making all humanity a success.

You have to ask yourself the question, "Are my reflexes so conditioned that I resent someone else enjoying themselves? Am I really willing to really love my humanity, my fellows?"

If you do that, we will win. If you can do it, if it is spontaneously arousable in you to operate with integrity and really go along to love, to love comprehensively. That's it.

WHAT I HAVE LEARNED....

You do not have to earn your worthiness.

You don't have to be right - only effective.

This image shows a single sheet of white paper with horizontal blue or grey ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and run across the width of the page. There are approximately 20 lines visible. The paper appears to be from a notebook or a set of legal pads. There is no handwriting or other markings on the page.

COMMITMENT

Until one is committed there is hesitancy, the chance to draw back,
always ineffectiveness.

Concerning all acts of initiative (and creation)
there is one elementary truth,
the ignorance of which kills countless ideas
and splendid plans:
that the moment one definitely commits oneself,
then Providence moves too.
All sorts of things occur to help one that would otherwise never have occurred.
A whole stream of events issues from the decision,
raising in one's favor all manner of unforeseen incidents and meetings
and material assistance,
which no man could have dreamed
would have come his way

*"Whatever you can do,
or dream you can, begin it.
Boldness has genius,
power, and magic in it."*
