ETP II Transformation

SESSION 1

FIRST EVENING

- Welcome everyone. Set the context for the program from the very beginning by the way you introduce the program: intimate, taking the program seriously, humor.
- Ask them to relax and become aware of where in their bodies there is any stress carried. Have people ask that part why there is stress. What in spiritual body does that body part connect with?
 - We need to bring into balance our masculine/feminine nature:
 - mind - male self - creative
 - emotions - female self - intuitive, nurturing
 - When the 2 not in balance = stress
- Key: A major block to experiencing spirituality is projection.
- Ask participants: What is your purpose for being here? What do you want to create in this program? (Logistics Person : write down and make into a handout of everyone's purpose for program. Have this ready by next afternoon.)
- During the time that participants answer this question, create the context and culture of the program:
 - This program is about transformation. Define:
This program is about surrendering to yourself.
Ego is very important - don't dissolve it but allow it to get passive.
 - This program is also about attention - discuss:
"One of the ways to create what ever your purpose is, to focus your attention on yourself. One of the context shifts we are asking people to make is to really pay attention to you.""When you make that choice to go in - you have to get to the ugly part.." You will not get to your ugly if you don't give up your pictures. Teach the difference between pictures and visions.

- Everyone in the program is expected to tell their truth responsibly.

We don't care if you want approval as long as you share information responsibly.

KEY: The key to unconditional love is personal responsibility.

- Everyone is expected to do service throughout the 9 months of the program.

Can't do transformation without service.

KEY: Pick something that means something to you.

- Everyone is expected to do the assignments:

Do one meditation a day that will support your transformation.

Keep a scrapbook of your journey.

Do all sorts of wild and crazy spiritual things together. Laughter will do what the most painful process will do faster.

Keep a dream diary.

• The experience of being connected and not attached is where freedom is. That space is going to be our "sacred space." It is used for higher purpose. It is not like feeling in love. It is the opposite of ownership in relationship. Your focus is always on you.

• We want to consecrate relationships to include them in that sacred space.

- Closed eyes: Give up the thought of being married. Ask yourself if you want to be with the person you are with, you want to just live with someone, want to be with someone else.

- There has to be a real friendship to have a shared vision in a relationship.

- The only way to know what someone else means is to take in what they say.

• To not acknowledge what is true is like starvation.

- You have to find out where you are held captive.

- You won't have a desire without an experience of something.

- Risk the behaviors that will create your desires.

- When a person is in their heads, they are separate from their experience > insane; They don't receive, they only think.
- You won't be able to access or experience until you give up interpreting or analyzing. You can tell you are analyzing if you are fighting, agreeing, disagreeing or thinking they are wrong;
- If you give up analyzing - the subject/object relationship will end.

- Introduce chakras:

The receiving chakras are the feminine (lower) 3.
The upper three are chakras are creative and male.
The heart is the connector.

- Ask people what is the myth or fairy tale they relate to as a man/woman.
 - Read: The Wicked Stepmother story.

- Talk about spirit guides. Some appear separate - like "the other," but we are not separate.
 - Ask participants to commit to giving up pictures about guides.

- KEY: freedom = doing what you say you are going to do no matter what!
 - you will be given the space to experience more freedom here.

- Perturbation:

- We can create perturbation from outside - but we will not do that.
- Agitation from outside will not create real change.
- We will create enough agitation for you to agitate yourself.
- We trust that you will share as much as we do.

- Pick groups - with people you don't know everything about; mates in different groups. See what you are like when you are free.

- Handouts for the evening:

"Choices for Success"
Dissipative Structures

- Assignments:

- Meet for an hour and share the ludicrous highlights of your life. Share from place as if have already achieved your purpose.
- read Dissipative Structures in the a.m. and the chapter in Choices for Success on "Sources of Info" tonight.

DAY TWO

- After their group sharing - have them introduce each other:
 - " Use your true experience of each other. Talk about what the person you are introducing is like, not what you are like."
 - When people project - point it out and ask them if they know anything about the other person.
 - KEY: "How long does it take you to rejoin yourself when you have been thrown off course by your own demons?"
 - Halfway through - ask people if anyone wants to add to anything - in order to balance the presentations. Then again at the end.

Break

- Do connected breathing exercise:
 - Inhale deeply for as long as possible, counting slowly, then immediately exhale fully, also counting slowly. Repeat for 10 minutes.
 - Ask them to get to 100 on the in breath and 100 on the exhale before the next session. And commit to doing it everyday.
- Ask people who read the Dissipative Structures. Who didn't?
 - We will assume that everyone does the assignments. If they don't they won't understand the program.
- Teach about the necessity for stress in transformation.
 - When we jump to an interpretation or thought about the benefit of an experience, stress is diminished and we leave the experience.
Change cannot occur.
 - KEY: Don't go for relief - ever.
 - Beliefs are so deeply ingrained that it takes a lot to change them. It takes threat.
 - KEY: In this program we want you to be yourself and be connected at the same time. That will create perturbation.

• The KEY to change is when you don't know what to do next.
The chance for transformation is strongest then.

- Go inside and deal with the results you create by your behavior.
- How to choose out of that system of going for relief is to have a vision and choose the vision rather than the feelings.
- The vision you choose to inspire yourself with will require a belief system dissimilar to the one you have now.
- Then living that will bring up the beliefs that are the antithesis of that new belief. You keep to the new behavior and the agitation will dissipate the old belief.
- Then you move to a higher order - there is more of you.
- The earth plane is the place where we have the opportunity to go all the way and transform.

• Exercise: Think of a concept you have left behind. To deal with someone who deals with that concept you have to stop and rejoin that way of thinking.

• KEY: Do not allow the familiar behavior for relief* (*core of addictions). Always ask yourself why you are doing something. Looking for a re-ordering of the non-physical through the physical. Can only change the non-physical through the physical.

• KEY: Go deeper inside to the core of what is going on. This means becoming fluid again. It is the end of projection; the end of separation.

• Exercise: Turn to the person next to you. Share the myth, fairy tale (if woman) or the part of "Iron John" (if man) that you identified with.

• Chakras:

- 1st chakra - root - Raw, undiluted energy.
 - > Sex with its original purpose - is about family, connection to experience god. To have sex just for the physical sensation dissipates the creative energy.
 - > How many still believe that there are pictures for sex?
 - > We say choose to reclaim the sacredness of your sexuality and share that energy for connection and merging.
 - > The color red activates the 1st chakra.
- 2nd chakra - sacral - emotions, color, bright orange.
 - > Ideally, feelings would be clear - expressed as they are - not projected.
 - > The energy from the 1st chakra carries through.

- > If the chakra were not blocked - feeling would be a source of joy.
- 3rd chakra - solar plex - seat of power, yellow.
 - > Again - the energy flow of the 1st two chakras affect the 3rd.
- (1-3 are feminine - "negative")
- 4th chakra - heart - green.
 - > Connection, love, life.
 - > Not prejudiced against illusion.

Lunch: (Handout : Meditation- To Identify Blockages in the Emotional and Mental Body. Have people do the meditation during lunch.)

- Ask what it is that people want most from another, from the world. When did they stop giving that to themselves?
- Ask people what they discovered/experienced during the meditation.
- Anytime you get something different in a meditation that it says to do, go with you, the images you get, your experience.
 - KEY: review - when you are feeling or thinking something, it is usually your history. Thoughts and feelings are irrelevant. When they are in tune with and not separated from your experience there is no "because" or name attached to it.
 - "Why?" usually means a separation from the experience, to contain it. It limits what is happening.
- The other "why?" is to go deeper and deeper into self. Being intimate and connected will occur with lots of people. You choose to share your sexuality with one person. But the old idea of possessive intimacy is gone.
- Ways into our spirituality: KEYS:
 - Be who you are
 - Act in ways you respect
 - Be responsible - no projections
 - Be unattached from your stuff
 - Deal only with people's souls.
- If you were God and someone lied to you what would you do? Work directly with the soul of someone you have a negative experience with; not their personality.

- KEY: Any partial lie affects the heart chakra - your own lie and accepting others' lies.
- Ask people to commit to only talking to people's souls.
 - Soul talking assumptions:
 1. They are not your parents. The minute you give a label to someone you are separate.
 2. Everybody wants connection with everybody.
 3. Everyone is equal.
- Give people the opportunity to speak from their soul:
 - Look around the room - is everyone of equal value; anyone you don't love; anyone that is less equal; more fragile?
 - Why bother to talk to someone's personality?
- The focus for ETP II:
You are responsible for your relationship with you. All there is is you.
 - We are all oneseif.
 - When you really see me as me we are one.
 - How many women feel that men are just after sex?
 - How many men?
 - We are a product of our history. We can use that for our soul's purpose.
 - We are obligated to create the future by not projecting or allowing separation.
- What is spirituality? How do we demonstrate it:
 - oneness, integration
 - integrity with purpose
 - living an ordinary life
 - to consecrate our lives as sacred.
- Ask how many women are willing to commit to loving their bodies just the way they are.
- Tell the Bernie Siegel story about woman with MS loving her body.
- Ask men if willing to commit to not participating in any way in women's issues with their bodies and to make sure that their body is healthy.

- Exercise:

- Ask if there is anyone in the room who does not feel beautiful at the moment. If not, what's in the way?
- When everyone does, have them close their eyes and take a picture, a snapshot of right now. Take a full, deep breath and open your eyes.

BREAK

- Continue teaching the chakras. The last 3 are masculine.

- 5th chakra - blue - expression, communication, creative expression.

- > You know it is working when your words bring peace into yourself.
- > If you let go of wanting people to like you - your 5th chakra will open up.

- 6th chakra - purple - perception, window to soul, gateway to spiritual world.

- > Women were keepers of emotions (feminine - feelings)
- > men were keepers of expression (masculine - expression)
- > With women, what is inside is masculine
- > with men the inside is feminine
- > The soul aspect is usually the opposite of how a person appears.

- 7th chakra - the crown - white/gold. Connection is universal; with God.

- Hand out the assignments for tonight and ask them to do with groups and share their results:

- Meditation for Emotional Body
- Meditation for Balancing Positive and Negative chakras
- Then the Meditation on Spiritual Body done at night before bed.

DAY THREE

- Sharing without explaining.

- Stop people when they get heady.
- In terms of spiritual, the story does not matter.
- Being in the present is what matters.
- Sound can heal or kill -- only speak the truth in your real voice.

- It is your privilege to create your life here. If you think anyone is doing anything to you, you create sludge in your chakras.
 - Everyone is the same. Everyone is afraid. You choose your behavior.
 - When you don't take care of someone you experience what they are projecting.
 - If you are present, you know what is going on.
 - Why talk to someone's content? We do it because we don't want to lose the person. We communicate ego to ego. But there is no relationship.
 - Cherish your discomfort - it's yours. Don't throw it away. Keep the pressure up.
 - KEY: Don't be controlled by your fear.
 - KEY: No one has the power to change how you think.
 - If you speak from your soul to the other person's soul, even though the other person is speaking from their personality, you will experience the child abuse in the other person.
 - Ask participants to commit to speak soul to soul, except for fun.
- ETP II Agreement: To speak to souls and speak truth.
- Inside of each of you - is the opposite sex in the form of the unconscious. That is the part of you that chooses the person you are attracted to. As you change, the people you are attracted to changes. Most relationships end because of this.
 - Exercise: Look around the room and see who your eyes are attracted to. Then look inside and see what the man or woman inside are like. Then have that person look around and see who you are attracted to and who not attracted to.
 - KEY: The masculine energy and feminine energy in you get together and create an illusion 99.999% of the time. Everything you experience about the other person is about you.
 - The energy in you swirls around and around and chooses yourself to be with.

- The Story of relationships:

Your energy and another person's energy are compatible - you feel good in each other's presence, can be yourself, like the same food, want kids, like each other's work, etc., and agree to commit to sharing the path together.

Then he meets someone else he is attracted to and you get interested and ask what it's like, etc. He goes through it and you go through it and you share yourselves and you each end up with more.

If you stay with someone who is fighting growth, you start to die. If you don't grow the person you are with stagnates.

We get into serious problems in a relationship when we separate; when we assume a role - man, woman, wife, mother, son, husband, father, because we are in an illusion.

BREAK

- About whether spirituality means not taking medicine to handle the symptoms: With serious or chronic disease we support you to get to the core of the conflict and take medication.

- Your soul will tell you what to do.

- Your body is not real anyway.

- Go inside, not for outside approval.

- Anything you do from a soul choice will not create regret.

- Pick a vision of what you want in your life and then you be that way and the inside changes. You will lose your pictures if you go with your vision. Then you create new pictures that fit the vision.

- Choose growth over the person you are with.

- Choose someone that you speak the same language with.

- The boy becomes a man by "stealing the key" from the mother inside him.

- KEY: If you think anything is a reason for your behavior other than your own choice, you won't live your vision.

- Look at the energy you put on your mate that is about your parents.

- KEY: Two things of like substance cannot occupy the same space at the same time - the KEY to homeopathy and Choices. (Soul homeopathy)

LUNCH

• Tips on seeing Auras:

- first let go of ego and judgement
- focus on sides of vision > periphery of things
- look at a person's skin - easiest to see auras there
- try it at night - outside walking

• Auras Exercise: Pick a partner and hold your hands up in front of you toward your partner. Move your hands toward each other until you feel your partner's aura. Move your hand away until you can no longer feel their aura, then back again. Then take that feeling and move it into your hand to your heart chakra. Feel what that feels like. Then move it to your root chakra. What does that feel like? Then back out.

- Sexuality before the auras merge, just for pleasure kills sexuality.

2nd Level Exercise: close eyes and using forehead lean toward partner until can feel aura. Move forehead around a little. Let yourself see a color. Then let yourself see a picture. Then open your eyes and share.

- The minute you name it, it's over – subject/object separation

3rd Level Exercise: Close your eyes and take right hand and put it over your own root chakra. Move your hand in a clockwise circle; then a figure eight, then bounce it like with a ball, then back to clockwise circle.

- ask that chakra for a true message about your sexuality.

4th Level Exercise: Then with your partner do the same exercise with each of your chakras, starting with the crown chakra, then share the message from that chakra with your partner; Take the message that your partner told you, put it in your third eye, close your eyes and send that hologram to your partner's crown chakra. Share your experience ...and so on.

- After 1st three chakras, take a breath and go over purposes in order to ground the energy.
- Use the handout about shielding yourself from negative thoughts
- And stay connected to your purpose.

• KEY: The only emotion is love, everything else is a reaction to it.

• KEY: If you do something that is out of the question for you, it is opening yourself to the dark side. There is irreparable damage.

• KEY: Ask people if they are committed to their purpose for the program. If you say you have a purpose – make sure you do it.

- Assignment: People need to balance their purpose — giving and receiving.
- Ask if there is still anyone who does not believe that there is a non-physical dimension that is just like the physical - but things take much longer to manifest.
 - How many people know they have been here before?
 - People die and enter a new dimension – and based on their beliefs – it will determine what they experience.
 - Think of the illusions that you hold that might be reality next time.
- KEY: Teach about karma and how the only thing that erases it is unconditional love.
 - Every act that we do to another person or yourself that is not from our highest purpose, we have to deal with right away.
- Assignment: Write down the experiences of the non-physical that you have during the program and share with someone else.
- We have more substance and less mass than we are aware of and we are all connected through the 5th aura.
- KEY: The internal environment we have creates the external environment.
 - In order to transmute hate you have to contain it, own it, explore it, embrace it.

BREAK - Have everyone take a walk.

- Continue 4th Level exercise with the chakras: 5th through 7th
- With partners this evening, do 4th chakra - heart.
- At home this evening:
 1. Project shield of gold light
 2. Go out and meditate with stars.
 - Write down the information you get
 3. Ask for spirit guides.

DAY FOUR

- ASK: Who did not have an experience of a spirit guide.
 - We have more than one spirit guide -- they take many forms.
 - We are all parts of a larger soul and when one aspect of a soul dies, the wisdom of that soul is presented to the other aspects. If the wisdom is used, it grows. If not, it fades.
 - We are all attached to an oversoul – we are not alone.
 - There are animal spirits that come to the group of particular souls.
 - We have animal, spirit, earth guides.
 - To assume you are all alone is arrogant.
- We can pretend all kinds of things about our guides or not. If go all the way - do all the assignments and keep all agreements, not withhold any information from self - the result will be joy.
 - What will convince people how urgent it is not to interpret.
 - Why would you pretend that the answers are not inside you?
 - Why would you act like someone else is the authority? To not be responsible.
 - All you need to deal with is your intention.
- In Greek tragedy:
A Tragic flaw kills the hero. Everyone around the hero can see the flaw except the hero. There is a simple blatant thing that if the hero would deal with, it would transform from flaw to strength.
- Exercise: see what your fatal flaw is.
 - Take a deep breath – if you could transform one issue right now to handle spirituality, what would it be?
 - Everyone close your eyes and focus your 3rd eye inside and look to the area that contains your uterus. Look for a sign that represents your intuition. If you haven't found it, look around the corner or cut through the darkness. Ask for a feeling or a sound.
 - Ask your intuition for what help it can give you. Write down the answer. Then decide whether you are going to commit to doing what your intuition told you.
 - You have a symbol for your intuition now and you will not confuse the info. with your heart.
- In Transformation we are taking age old information and making it practical - for use in everyday life. Making it ordinary.

BREAK

- KEY: Without a physical sensation, feelings have no value, they are thoughts.
 - Anger is not a true emotion. It's a bridge, it is a reaction to a feeling. Unless there is a physical sensation.
 - for most people anger is a waste of your time. What's in there? Not wanting yourself. To experience that and be with it and not change it and know it > dissipative structure.
- KEY: To Transformation is being okay with the way you are. The more you go on, the more the experience of nothing-ness and the more possibility for creation.
 - You have to go into the void. Understanding comes after the experience. Profound knowledge (Deming).
 - It doesn't matter how you feel about it, stay with the experience.
 - Anyone that's trying not to look like the fool - is making a mistake.
- Schedule the next two sessions:
- KEY: When you truly feel like you can't do something - it's one thing. When you do see a way and don't do it - it causes irreparable damage. It's what the American Indians called being double-hearted and thought was the most serious illness.
- KEY: If you are not in integrity in being here, don't come back to the program.
- KEY: Pretense - is dangerous to you. This program is about creation. You will create the results of double-heartedness or pretense.
- KEY: Will you commit? It is a free choice, despite your history the only reason to do it is because it supports your vision.
- KEY: Your heart only answers what's true if you are connected to your vision. Otherwise, it comes from your history. It gives you screwy answers if you are out of integrity.
- Ask your hearts if there is anything that they did that is still there for you to handle. If you are having difficulty, ask for energy from your crown chakra. To be 100% responsible, you have to handle your behavior, not just feel or understand.

- KEY: When you make excuses for why you do or don't do something, you hurt your self-respect. You create pretense.
- You have to go to the source.
- Whenever you do not be totally responsible, you deny life.
 - When you act like something is not happening — you have to be dead inside — you separate yourself from yourself.
- Ask how many people are happy with their sexuality?
 - Talk about the reasons:
 - >sexuality is changing
 - >so much fear of disease
 - >cultural, historical connection to rape, incest
 - Sexuality is no longer sacred. It used to be when the reason for sex was for having children.
 - > In orthodox Jewish couples, sleep separate half the time and meditate at those times. Their sexuality is reserved for each other.
- To re-program your sexuality:
 - tell the truth
 - love your body
 - if you don't experience yourself or the other as turned on, believe it
 - it has to come from your body.
- KEY: If you are ever truly in your passion, the person you are with will respond. It comes from the sacred place.
- KEY: When someone says they want to have sex and they don't really experience it, they haven't defined themselves as a sexual being.
- How do you know if you are in a spiritually healthy sexual relationship?
 1. Ask yourself what your intention is for wanting sex or not wanting it.
 2. Do you trust the person you are with to be honest sexually.
 3. What is the pleasure truly about with that person.
 4. Do you expect something from them afterwards? Do you think you are giving them something or vice versa.
 5. To have sex for these reasons: approval, to be loved, comfort, to prove something, relief, etc., creates negative results. Not true sexuality.

- If your fear of loss is greater than your self respect, you won't behave in ways that will heal your root chakra.
- When you go into spiritual transformation your sexuality really changes.
 - It comes in spurts or sometimes not at all,
 - but it doesn't follow a pattern.
- Theoretically, healthy sex is when it is not an issue. When it has no guile, when it is natural. No pretense.
- Sex is the quickest way to get the divine.
- KEY: You have the power to create your sexuality concomitant with your vision.
- Meditation - when you have a sexual experience that you don't have to act out - move the energy up through the chakras - don't diffuse - see what colors, what happens to it through meditation - then write down what you learned. What happens to people around you.
- How to detoxify and re-create your sexuality in a relationship.
 1. Don't make love unless both want to.
 2. Move the energy through your chakras.
 3. Take away every projection, both positive and negative. Truly.
- Sex is the quickest way we have as mortals to enter the spiritual realm.
 - Create your own sexuality and it will heal all of your chakras.
- Go over assignments:
 - 1) Be responsible to handle the 1st chakra issues we talked about the last hour.
 - 2) Learn the information on the handouts on how to recognize interpretation and projection.
 - 3) For entertainment read "Incarnations of Immortality" by Piers Anthony. (optional)
 - 4) Create a Vision for what you want relationship to be, whether you are in one or not. Then list the behaviors that are needed to make that vision happen.
 - 5) Read "We" by Robert Johnson, "The Global Brain", and "Shambala, the Way of the Warrior"
 - 6) Do one meditation a day-- whichever one supports where you are that day

- 7) Keep a scrapbook of your journey
- 8) Do all sorts of wild and crazy spiritual things together
- 9) Keep a dream diary
- 10) Do the connected breathing exercise every day. Get to 100 on the inhale and on the exhale by next session.
- 11) Do some kind of service that means something to you.
- 12) Only talk to people's souls
- 13) Take lots of walks in the woods, sleep under trees-- do the kind of physical exercise that is a natural part of life

Women:

- Love your bopdies just the way they are
- Express yourself as a woman; be mysterious, deep, intimate; feel everything; be the wild woman
- Treat the man in you (and men outside) with deep respect, give him lots of space to be free: let him go wherever he wants to go.

Men:

- Steal the Key. Be the Wild Man.
- Do not participate in any way in womens' issues with their bodies.
- Allow the woman inside you to express herself, feel everything, be mysterious, deep and intimate. Do not control her. Love her body just the way it is. Let her be the wild woman.
- For the women inside the men: give respect to the outward man.

SESSION ENDS

Instructor's Manual
ETP II
Transformation

SESSION 1
April 18-22, 1991

FIRST EVENING

Relax, pay attention to where in body carries stress. Ask that part why stress.
What in spiritual body does that body part connect with?

Bring into balance feminine nature.
mind - male self - creative
emotions - female - intuitive, nurturing
When the 2 not in balance = stress

Pay attention to the level of resistance in the program. Sansea

KEY: To enrolling = compassion and humility; getting out of ego.

A major block to experiencing spirituality is projection.

Set the context for the program from the very beginning by the way you introduce the program: intimate, taking the program seriously, humor.

"One of the ways to create what ever your purpose is, to focus your attention on yourself. One of the context shifts we are asking people to make is to really pay attention to you."

"When you make that choice to go in - you have to get to the ugly part.."

This program is about surrendering to yourself - context.

Ego is very important - don't dissolve it but allow it to get passive.

Can't do transformation without service. KEY: pick something that means something to you.

We don't care if you want approval as long as you share information responsibly.
KEY: responsibility is part of context.

KEY: The key to unconditional love is personal responsibility.

Do one meditation a day that will support your transformation.

Keep a scrapbook of journey.

Do all sorts of wild and crazy spiritual things together.

Laughter will do what the most painful process will do faster.

Keep a dream diary.*

You will not get to your ugly if you don't give up your pictures.

Slogan: "One ugly minute at a time."

Did story of Quimbly Institute - aura balancing.

The experience of being connected and not attached is where freedom is. It is not like feeling in love. That space is going to be our "sacred space." It is used for higher purpose. It is the opposite of ownership relationship. Your focus is always on you.

Difference between pictures and visions.

We want to consecrate relationships to include them in that sacred space.

Closed eyes: Give up the thought of being married. Ask yourself if you want to be with the person you are with, you want to just live with someone, want to be with someone else.

There has to be a real friendship to have a shared vision in a relationship.

You have to find out where you are held captive.

You won't have a desire without an experience of something.

Risk the behaviors that will create your desires.

The receiving chakras are the feminine (lower) 3.
The upper three are chakras are creative and male.
The heart is the connector.

To not acknowledge what is true is like starvation.

Handouts for the evening:
"Chapter 10" - Choices for Success
Dissipative Structures
Jonah notes

Read: The Wicked Stepmother story.

Talk about guides. Some appear separate - "the other," but we are not separate.
Ask participants to commit to giving up pictures about guides.

When a person is in their heads, they are separate from their experience insane;
They don't receive, they only think.

The only way to know what someone else means is to take in what they say.
You won't be able to access or experience until you give up interpreting or analyzing.

You can tell you are analyzing if you are fighting, agreeing, disagreeing or thinking they are wrong;
If you give up analyzing - the subject/object relationship will end.

Assignment:
Meet for an hour and share the ludicrous highlights of your life.

KEY: freedom = doing what you say you are going to do no matter what!

Perturbation:
-you will be given the space to experience more freedom here.
-read Dissipative Structures in the a.m. and the chapter on "Sources of Info" tonight.

We can create perturbation from outside - but we will not do that.

We will create enough agitation for you to agitate yourself.

Agitation from outside will not create real change.

We trust that you will share as much as we do.
Pick groups - with people you don't know everything about; mates in different groups. See what you are like when you are free.

Meet at 9:00 with group. Class starts at 10:00.

*Share from place as if have already achieved your purpose.

Do fun stuff:

clean each others auras

past life travelogue

DAY TWO

After their group sharing - have them introduce each other - using your true experience of them. About what they are like, not what you are like.

KEY: "How long does it take you to rejoin yourself when you have been thrown off course by your own demons?"

When people project - point it out and ask them if they know anything about the other person.

Halfway through - ask people if anyone wants to add to anything - in order to balance the presentations. Then again at the end.

After break

Do connected breathing exercise

*Ask them to get to 100 on the in breath and 100 on the exhale before the next session. And commit to doing it everyday.

Ask people who read the Dissipative Structures. Who didn't?

We will assume that everyone does the assignments. If they don't they won't understand.

Teach about the necessity for stress in transformation.

When we jump to an interpretation or thought about the benefit of an experience, we leave the experience. Change cannot occur.

How to choose out of that system is to have a vision and choose the vision rather than the feelings.

Then you move to a higher order - there is more of you.

Jack to get a Level 21 tape from the Monroe Institute for the next session.

The KEY to change is when you don't know what to do next. The chance for transformation is strongest.

Beliefs are so deeply ingrained that it takes a lot to change them. It takes threat.

KEY: Don't go for relief - ever; your own personal relief.

We ordain our future by what we say.

Go inside and deal with the results you create by your behavior.

Illusion creates stress in a closed system.

KEY: In this program we want you to be yourself and be connected at the same time. That will create perturbation.

Exercise: Think of a concept you have left behind. To deal with someone who deals with that concept you have to stop and rejoin that way of thinking.

The vision you choose to inspire yourself with will require a belief system dissimilar to the one you have now.

Then living that will bring up the beliefs that are the antithesis of that new belief. You keep to the new behavior and the agitation will dissipate the old belief.

The earth plane is the place where we have the opportunity to go all the way and transform.

To each his own perturbation.

KEY: Do not allow the familiar behavior for relief* (*core of addictions). Always ask self why are doing something. Looking for a re-ordering of the non-physical through the physical.

Can only change the non-physical through the physical.

KEY: Go deeper inside to the core of what is going on. Becoming fluid again. The end of projection; the end of separation.

Exercise: Turn to the person next to you. share the myth, fairy tale (if woman) or the part of "Iron John" (if man) that you identified with.

Ask if anyone feels a strong need to share anything - at anytime to do so.

Chakras

1st chakra - root - ask what it is, what it does.

Talk about Kundalini. *We will do exercises next time to experience the Kundalini.

Raw, undiluted energy.

To have sex for the physical sensation dissipates the creative energy. Sex with its original purpose - family, connection to experience god, dissipates creative energy.

We say that you choose to reclaim the sacredness of your sexuality and share that energy for connection and merging.

The color red activated the 1st chakra.

How many still believe that there are pictures for sex?

2nd chakra - sacral -emotions, color, bright orange.

Ideally, feelings would be clear - expressed as they are - not projected.

The energy from the 1st chakra carries through.

If chakra not blocked - feeling would be a source of joy.

3rd chakra - solar plex -seat of power, yellow.

Again - the energy flow of the 1st two chakras affect the 3rd.

1-3 are feminine - negative

4th chakra - heart - green. Connection, love, life. Not prejudiced against illusion.

After lunch:

Ask people what they discovered/experienced during the meditation.

KEY: Ask what it is that people want most from another, from the world. When did they stop giving that to themselves?

Anytime you get something different in a meditation that it says to do, go with you, the images you get, your experience.

KEY: review - when you are feeling or thinking something, it is usually your history. They are irrelevant. When they are in tune with and not separated from your experience there is no "because" or name attached to it.

"Why?" usually means a separation from the experience, to contain it. It limits what is happening.

The other "why?" is to go deeper and deeper into self. Being intimate and connected will occur with lots of people. You choose to share your sexuality with one person. But the old idea of possessive intimacy is gone.

KEY: Any partial lie affects the heart chakra - your own lie and accepting others' lies.

If we experience someone as a liar we lie to them because we give them power over us.

Ways into our spirituality: KEYS:

- Be who you are
- Act in ways you respect
- Be responsible - no projections
- Be unattached from your stuff
- Deal only with people's souls.

If you were God and someone lied to you what would you do? Work directly with the soul of someone you have a negative experience with; not their personality.

KEY: All you ever see is yourself.

Ask people to commit to only talking to people's souls.

Soul talking assumptions:

1. They are not your parents. The minute you give a label to someone you are separate.
2. Everybody wants connection with everybody.
3. Everyone is equal.

*Give people the opportunity to speak from soul.

Look around the room - is everyone of equal value; anyone you don't love; anyone that is less equal; more fragile?

KEY: Why bother to talk to someone's personality?

The focus for ETP II:

You are responsible for your relationship with you. That's all there is is you.

We are all oneself.

When you really see me as me we are one.

How many women feel that men are just after sex? How many men?

KEY: We are a product of our history. We can use that for our soul's purpose.

KEY: We are obligated to create the future by not projecting or allowing separation.

What is spirituality? How do we demonstrate it:

oneness, integration, integrity with purpose; living an ordinary life; to consecrate our lives as sacred.

KEY: The results of a situation are determined by whether you hold life sacred.

KEY: What are benefits of living from a spiritual perspective.

*Ask how many women are willing to commit to loving their bodies just the way they are.

Tell the Bernie Siegel story about woman with MS loving her body.

*Ask men if willing to commit to not participating in any way in women's issues with their bodies and to make sure that your body is healthy.

Exercise:

*Ask if there is anyone in the room who does not feel beautiful at the moment. If not, what's in the way.

When everyone does, have them close their eyes and take a picture, a snapshot of right now. Take a full, deep breath and open your eyes.

BREAK

Continue teaching the chakras. The last 3 are masculine.

5th chakra - blue - expression, communication, creative expression. You know it is working when your words bring peace into yourself.

6th chakra - purple - perception, window to soul, gateway to spiritual world.
(Women were keepers of emotions; men were keepers of expression.)

feminine - feelings
masculine - expression

With women, what is inside is masculine; with men the inside is feminine. The soul aspect is usually the opposite of how a person appears.

*Teach more about this.

7th chakra - the crown - white/gold. Connection is universal; with God.

Hand out the assignments for tonight and ask them to do with groups and share their results.

- Meditation for Emotional Body

- Balancing Positive and Negative chakras

- Then the meditation on Spiritual Body done at night before going to bed.

Talk about Earth Day.

Be aware of what you put in your body. Don't judge what you did in the past. You can transform anything.

DAY THREE

Right hand - giving
Left hand - receiving

When you fall asleep at night is the person next to you still there?

Sharing without explaining.

(Stop people when they get heady.)

In terms of spiritual, the story does not matter. Being in the present is what matters.

Might want to read "Incarnations of Immortality" by Piers Anthony.

Sound - can heal or kill -- only speak the truth in your real voice.

Project: Projection jokebook - P.O.P.

*If you let go of wanting people to like you - your 5th chakra (throat) will open up.

Joke: So Astrid, what's this other guy like?

It is your privilege to create your life here. If you think anyone is doing anything to you, you create sludge in your chakras.

*Everyone is the same. Everyone is afraid. You choose your behavior.

*When you don't take care of someone you experience what they are projecting.

If you are present, you know what is going on.

Why talk to someone's content? We do it because we don't want to lose the person. We communicate ego to ego. There is no relationship (see Sansea's diagram).

KEY: Don't be controlled by your fear.

If you speak from your soul to the other person's soul, even though the other person is speaking from their personality, you will experience the child abuse in the other person.

KEY: No one has the power to change how you think.

KEY: Commit to speak soul to soul, except for fun.

Do toning - different sounds for each chakra.

Cherish your discomfort - it's yours. Don't throw it away. Keep the pressure up.

Inside of each of you - is the opposite sex in the form of the unconscious. That is the part of you that chooses the person you are attracted to. As you change, the people you are attracted to changes. Most relationships end because of this.

Joke: My heart is going "hmm, hmm, hmm." —Gracie

Exercise: Look around the room and see who your eyes are attracted to. Then look inside and see what the man or woman inside are like. Then have that person look around and see who you are attracted to and who not attracted to.

(later - point out stuff - Susan and Jonathan.)

KEY: The masculine energy and feminine energy in you get together and create an illusion 99.999% of the time. Everything you experience about the other person is about you.

The energy in you swirls around and around and chooses yourself to be with.

Story of relationships:

Your energy and another person's energy are compatible - you feel good in each other's presence, can be yourself, like the same food, want kids, like each other's work, etc., and agree to commit to sharing the path together.

Then he meets someone else he is attracted to and you get interested and ask what it's like, etc. He goes through it and you go through it and you share yourselves and you each end up with more.

If you stay with someone who is fighting growth, you start to die. If you don't grow the person you are with stagnates.

We get into serious problems in a relationship when we separate; when we assume a role - man, woman, wife, mother, son, husband, father, because we are in an illusion.

Joke: Aura orgasms in Tobago.

Getting spiritual has nothing to do with not taking aspirin.

With serious or chronic disease we support you to get to the core of the conflict and take medication.

Your soul will tell you what to do.

Your body is not real anyway.

Go inside, not for outside approval.

KEY: Anything you do from a soul choice will not create regret.

Joke: I took 7 shits yesterday. —T

Aura criteria:

- let go of ego and judgement
- focus on sides of vision
- look at skin - easiest
- at night - outside walking

Joke: "Oh, it's just low-level spirituality." —Nancy

KEY: We are not in relationship with another person.

KEY: You pick a vision of what you want in your life and then you be that way and the inside changes. You will lose your pictures if you go with your vision. Then you create new pictures that fit the vision.

*Don't expect to get your $ worth if you let anything go by.

Joke: "The more pain you have, the happier I am." —Judith

*Choose growth over the person you are with.

*Get the excerpt from Ono One - the seed about choosing another path.

*Choose someone that you speak the same language with.

*The boy becomes a man by "stealing the key" from the mother inside him.

KEY: If you think anything is a reason for your behavior other than your own choice, you won't live your vision.

ETP II Agreement: To speak to souls and speak truth.

Joke: Foretelling - you know, like foreskin and foreplay.

*Androgyny vs. male lesbian

*Look at the energy you put on your mate that is about your parents.

*Backlash to womens/blacks liberation is generation effeminate, angry men.

Joke: "I say dump her!" —Judith

KEY: Two things of like substance cannot occupy the same space at the same time - the KEY to homeopathy and choices.

Soul homeopathy

Auras -

Exercise: Pick a partner and hold your hands up in front of you toward your partner. Move your hands toward each other until you feel your partner's aura. Move your hand away until you can no longer feel their aura, then back again. Then take that feeling and move it into your hand to your heart chakra. Feel what that feel like. Then move it to your root chakra. What does that feel like? Then back out.

Sexuality before the auras merge, just for pleasure kills sexuality.

2nd Level Exercise: close eyes and using forehead lean toward partner until can feel aura. Move forehead around a little. Let yourself see a color. Then let yourself see a picture. Then open your eyes and share.

The minute you name it, it's over — subject, object separation

3rd Level Exercise: Close your eyes and take right hand and put it over your own root chakra. Move your hand in a clockwise circle; then a figure eight, then bounce it like with a ball, then back to clockwise circle.

*Then ask that chakra for a true message about your sexuality.

4th Level Exercise: Then with your partner do the same exercise with each of your chakras, starting with the crown chakra, then share the message from that chakra with your partner; Take the message that your partner told you, put it in your third eye, close your eyes and send that hologram to your partner's crown chakra. Share you experience ...and so on.

After 1st two chakras, take a breath and go over purposes in order to ground the energy.

Do the piece about shielding yourself fro negative thoughts -(handout).
And stay connected to your purpose.

KEY: The only emotion is love, everything else is a reaction to it.

KEY: If you do something that is out of the question for you, it is opening yourself to the dark side. There is irreparable damage.

KEY: Ask people if they are committed to their purpose for the program.

Assignment: People need to balance their purpose — giving and receiving.

Ask if there is still anyone who does not believe that there is a non-physical dimension that is just like the physical - but things take much longer to manifest.

How many people know they have been here before?

You die and enter a new dimension – and based on their beliefs – it will determine what they experience. Think of the illusions that you hold that might be reality next time.

KEY: If you say you have a purpose – make sure you do it.

KEY: Teach about karma and how the only thing that erases it is unconditional love.

Every act that we do to another person or yourself that is not from our highest purpose, we have to deal with right away.

Joke: "I've had this thing happen where all of a sudden I'll be in my body..." — Karen

Assignment: Write down the experiences of the non-physical that you have during the program and share with someone else.

*We have more substance and less mass than we are aware of and we are all connected through the 5th aura.

KEY: The internal environment we have creates the external environment.

KEY: In order to transmute hate you have to contain it, own it, explore it, embrace it.

Take a walk.

Continue the chakras — 5th chakra

Dinner — during dinner, see others as they really are.

This evening, do 4th chakra - heart.

At home this evening:

1. Project shield of gold light
2. Go out and meditate with stars. Write down the info. from both.
3. Ask for spirit guides.

DAY FOUR

Who did not have an experience of a spirit guide.

KEY: We have more than one spirit guide -- they take many forms.

KEY: We are all parts of a larger soul and when one aspect of a soul dies, the wisdom of that soul is presented to the other aspects. If the wisdom is used, it grows. If not, it fades.

We are all attached to an oversoul – we are not alone. There are animal spirits that come to the group of particular souls.

We have animal, spirit, earth guides.

To assume you are all alone is arrogant.

Joke: "I'm not on anything...well, I was a little." —Cate

Cate's guide - "Ferbil"

What is the hysteria in the room? Excitement and fear mixed.

We can pretend all kinds of things about our guides or not. If go all the way - do all the assignments and keep all agreements, not withhold any information from self - the result will be joy.

What will convince people how urgent it is not to interpret.

KEY: Why would you pretend that the answers are not inside you? Why would you act like someone else is the authority? To not be responsible.

*All you need to deal with is your intention.

In Greek tragedy:

Tragic flaw kills the hero. Everyone around the hero can see the flaw except the hero. There is a simple blatant thing that if the hero would deal with, it would transform from flaw to strength.

Exercise (?): see what your fatal flaw is.

Go over assignments.

Take a deep breath – if you could transform one issue right now to handle spirituality, what would it be?

Everyone close your eyes and focus your 3rd eye inside and look to the area that contains your uterus. Look for a sign that represents your intuition. If you haven't found it, look around the corner or cut through the darkness. Ask for a feeling or a sound.

KEY: Ask your intuition for what help it can give you. Write down the answer. Then decide whether you are going to commit to doing what your intuition told you.

You have a symbol for your intuition now and you will not confuse the info. with your heart.

Athena, the goddess of wisdom, was born through the forehead of Zeus. Zeus swallowed Metis, the goddess of prudence, because he didn't want a son to overtake him. Athena, since she wasn't birthed from a woman, had the capacity to help create the downfall of another woman, Medusa.

*We are taking age old information and making it practical - for use in everyday life. Make it ordinary.

BREAK

Anger is not a true emotion. It's a bridge, it is a reaction to a feeling. Unless there is a physical sensation.

KEY: Without a physical sensation, feelings have no value, they are thoughts.

KEY: Your only job as a parent is to be with your child to make sure they don't hurt themselves?

KEY: Mary, your anger is a waste of your time. What's in there? Not wanting yourself. To experience that and be with it and not change it and know it – dissipative structure.

KEY: To Transformation is being okay with the way you are. The more you go on, the more the experience of nothing-ness and the more possibility for creation.

You have to go into the void. Understanding comes after the experience. Profound knowledge (Deming).

KEY: It doesn't matter how you feel about it, stay with the experience.

*Anyone that's trying not to look like the fool - mistake.

Scheduled next two sessions:

June 27-30 - here

Sept. 26-29 (option on Monday) - St. Lawrence island

Then resume the chakra exercise.

KEY: When you truly feel like you can't do something - it's one thing. When you do see a way and don't do it - it causes irreparable damage. It's what the American Indians called being double-hearted and thought was the most serious illness.

KEY: If you are not in integrity in being here, don't come back.

KEY: Pretense - is dangerous to you. This program is about creation. You will create the results of double-heartedness or pretense.

KEY: Will you commit? It is a free choice, despite your history the only reason to do it is because it supports your vision.

KEY: Your heart only answers what's true if you are connected to your vision. Otherwise, it comes from your history. It gives you screwy answers if you are out of integrity.

Give people an opportunity to ask their hearts if there is anything that they did that is still there for you to handle. If you are having difficulty, ask for energy from your crown chakra. To be 100% responsible, you have to handle your behavior, not just feel or understand.

KEY: When you make excuses for why you do or don't do something, you hurt your self-respect. You create pretense.

You have to go to the source.

Whenever I do not be totally responsible, I deny life.

*The emotional chakra is where we create how we are as humans. It is the closest to the physical.

When you act like something is not happening — you have to be dead inside — you separate yourself from yourself.

Do emotional chakra - don't beam it to partner.

Ask how many people are happy with their sexuality?

Talk about the reasons:

- sexuality is changing
- so much fear of disease
- cultural, historical connection to rape, incest

Sexuality is no longer sacred. It used to be when the reason for sex was for having children.

In orthodox Jewish couples, sleep separate half the time and meditate at those times. Their sexuality is reserved for each other.

We have an opportunity to re-program our sexuality:

- tell the truth
- love your body
- if you don't experience yourself or the other as turned on, believe it
- it has to come from your body.

Ask your root chakra what to do to re-program your sexuality.

KEY: If you are ever truly in your passion, the person you are with will respond. It comes from the sacred place.

KEY: The enriching of men is the phenomenon of thinking sexuality.

KEY: When someone says they want to have sex and they don't really experience it, they haven't defined themselves as a sexual being.

How do you know if you are in a spiritually healthy sexual relationship?

1. Ask yourself what your intention is for wanting sex or not wanting it.
2. Do you trust the person you are with to be honest sexually.
3. What is the pleasure truly about with that person.
4. Do you expect something from them afterwards? Do you think you are giving them something or vice versa.

To have sex for these reasons:

approval, to be loved, comfort, to prove something, relief, etc., creates negative results. Not true sexuality.

5. Do you expect them to behave a certain way.
6. Why have sex anyway.

If your fear of loss is greater than your self respect, you won't behave in ways that will heal your root chakra.

*When you go into spiritual transformation your sexuality really changes.

It comes in spurts or sometimes not at all, but it doesn't follow a pattern.

Theoretically, healthy sex is when it is not an issue. When it has no guile, when it is natural. No pretense.

Sex is the quickest way to get the divine.

Assignment for Astrid: Read "Amor & Psyche."

KEY: You have the power to create your sexuality concomitant with your vision.

Add meditation - when you have a sexual experience that you don't have to act out - move the energy up through the chakras - don't diffuse - see what colors, what happens to it through meditation - then write down what you learned. What happens to people around you.

Teach about how to detoxify and re-create your sexuality in a relationship.

1. Don't make love unless blah blah.
2. Move the energy through your chakras.
3. Take away every projection, both positive and negative. Truly.

*If you can't answer a question from someone with a normal answer, you are caught in your 1st three chakras.

Assignment for Susie: Have your own space in the house by next time.

Sex is the quickest way we have as mortals to enter the spiritual realm.

Create your own sexuality and it will heal all of your chakras.

*Check out whether your inside and outside match. Are you soft and try to appear tough or vice versa.

We will all be responsible as a group to handle the 1st chakra issues we talked about the last hour.

*Send out handouts on how to recognize interpretation and projection.

Do you want to have a relationship with your won mind or the other person.

Joke: "A legend in your own mind." —T

It is okay to be different.
